Board or Governing Body

“Corporate governance provides the structure through which the objectives of the company are set, and the means of attaining those objectives and monitoring performance are determined.” (OECD)

- Reviewing and guiding corporate strategy, major plans of action, policies and procedures, annual budgets and business plans
- Preventing conflicts of interest
- Balancing competing demands on the organisation
- Oversee the risk management system and systems designed to ensure that the corporation obeys applicable laws.
- Be satisfied that key corporate information and compliance systems are fundamentally sound and underpin the key monitoring role of the board

Good governance involves putting in place systems and processes to ensure that your charity achieves its charitable objectives with integrity and is managed in an effective, efficient, accountable and transparent way. (Charities Governance Code)*

The definition of 'good governance' is one where the board sets and oversees the achievement of its organisation's objectives. (CoP for Good Governance of Sport Organisations in Ireland)

Governance is a means to an end....not an end in itself

Evaluating the Board

- How does the board know it is doing a good job?
  - Have we found a balance between being entrepreneurial and being prudent?
  - Are we achieving the strategic objectives?
  - Are we using the resources effectively?
  - Are the board meetings constructive and well run?
  - Have we a good succession process in place?
  - Do we have a good range and mix of skills?
  - How do the stakeholders think we are doing?
  - Are we achieving the charitable purpose?
  - Do we all look forward to board meetings?

Does the Board embrace the spirit and good intentions of regulation?

Individual self assessment

- Do I Always:
  - ...take a firm position to protect the principles of good governance agreed in our charity?
  - ...demonstrate the organisation's values in what I say and how I act, always using appropriate and respectful language and behaviour?
  - ...actively consider the wellbeing of all those involved within the charity?
  - ...demonstrate my understanding of my role and statutory and legal duties as a director?

Individual self assessment

- Do I Always:
  - ...think about emerging trends and innovations, future legislation, and policy, as well as sector developments in order that I can contribute ideas to strategic discussions?
  - ...ask probing questions of the CEO/ Executive to check and challenge our progress against our vision and strategy?
  - ...behave in a professional way that promotes trust and openness between the board and executive team?
  - ...try to have a thorough understanding of the organisation's policies, performance, and finance.

Individual self assessment

- Do I Always;
  - ...encourage the taking advantage of opportunities in which we can acknowledge and celebrate progress and success?
  - ... listen actively and sensitively to encourage and understand the contributions and views of board colleagues, CEO/staff, and all stakeholders.
  - ... support collective decisions the board takes.
  - ... read the documents and arrive prepared for board meetings.
  - ... encourage the empowerment of the CEO / staff to deliver agreed plans?

Principle 1: Advancing Charitable Purpose CORE STANDARDS

1.1 Be clear about the purpose of your charity and be able to explain this in simple terms to anyone who asks.

Actions our charity takes to meet standards:	Evidence of our actions:
Trustees are clear about the charity's purpose and can explain it in simple terms.	Trustees have confirmed in writing they have read "What is a Charity". Our constitution clearly defines the charitable purpose. Trustees confirm annually they have reviewed and understood the governing document. "Main Object" is a standing Board item

1.2 Consider whether or not any private benefit arises (see glossary). If a private benefit arises, consider if it is reasonable, necessary, and ancillary to the public benefit that your charity provides.

Actions our charity takes to meet standards:	Evidence of our actions:
Trustees regularly consider whether private benefit arises from the charity's activities and, where it does, consider whether the private benefit is reasonable, necessary, and ancillary to the public benefit the charity provides.	Trustees met and discussed what private benefit arises. This is documented in a meeting minute. Attached. Travel and subsistence expenses are in line with Civil Service rates. See Expenses policy document.

1.3 Agree an achievable plan for at least the next year that sets out what you will do to advance your purpose.

Actions our charity takes to meet standards:	Evidence of our actions:
Trustees agree an achievable plan annually for at least the next year setting out how they will advance the charity's purpose.	Activities plan and budget is agreed in advance for the calendar year. See meeting minute attached. The plan is reviewed on a quarterly basis to confirm it remains achievable. Annual plan for 2021 attached.
